ENTRY INFORMATION

- Entry fee is $250.00. Your entry fee allows you to enter in all 4 categories to be judged under the KCBS rules. You will have to cook in all 4 meats categories to compete for the Grand Champion.
- The competition will follow KCBS Rules and Regulations in four categories: pork ribs, pork butt, brisket, and chicken.
- There will be electricity provided for use, but you will have to supply your own extension cords, adaptors and what you need to hook into our distribution box(s) that are equipped with 110 outlets. You may bring your own generator, but it must be quiet. We have the right to ask you to discontinue the use of your generator if we deem it to loud.
- Water will be available at several locations. Bring at least 100' of your own water hose(s) and splitter is recommended.
- Ice will not be available on location.
- Each team will be allowed a 20' x 30' space. If you will use less than this, we will park the next team behind or in front of your established location. We will do our best to accommodate teams that will need more space. Spaces will be assigned as you arrive. Only your cooking rig will be allowed at the space. No motor vehicles will be allowed at your space. Your vehicle can be parked in a designated area. If you have a motor home or a larger cooking trailer we will make accommodations for you. Please make sure you list the size of your trailer/motor home in the application so that I can make arrangements.
- Each team must have their own cooker.
- No Refunds
- The Downtown BBQ Showdown will occur rain or shine.
- The Grand Champion will be awarded a $1,500.00 cash prize, Reserve Champion $1,000.00 and 3rd Overall $500.00.
